

FAST-zero'25 Call for sponsorship

Visibility offered to companies sponsoring FAST-zero'25

Introduction

The Laboratory of Accident Mechanisms Analysis of Gustave Eiffel University will organize the eighth edition of the FAST-zero Symposium (International Symposium on Future Active Safety Technology toward Zero-Traffic-Accidents) in association with the JSAE (Society of Automotive Engineers of Japan). FAST-zero'25 will be held in Arles Conference Center (South of France) on 2025 September 23-26.

The biennial conference cycle FAST-zero was created in 2011 at the initiative of Japanese academics and takes place in odd years alternating with the AVEC Conference (International Symposium on Advanced Vehicle Control). This Conference historically brings together around 200 participants and around one hundred papers are presented. The participation of Japanese academics and industrials was always significant, even when FAST-zero was held outside Japan. The Conference takes place over 3 days and will be supplemented by technical visits. As the history of FAST-zero Symposia, after the first symposium in Tokyo, FAST-zero was biennially organized in Nagoya (Japan), Gothenburg (Sweden), Nara (Japan), Virginia (USA) and Kanazawa (Japan).

Becoming a sponsor of FAST-zero'25 will constitute a good opportunity to increase the awareness of your company and to network with the main experts in the international active safety community.

FAST-zero'25 Sponsorship offers

A sponsorship action for the benefit of FAST-zero'25, that is to say accompanied by a financial flow from the sponsor to Gustave Eiffel University, main organizer of the symposium, will result in an agreement signed between the sponsoring Company and the University.
